DECLARES PEOPLE AGAINST MADRIZ

Revolutionary Agent Is Sanguine of His Chief's Success.

Dr. Salvador Castrillo, the digiomatic agent of the Nicaraguan provisional government in Washington, has received iron-clad instructions from his superior, President Estrada, at Bluefields to insist at the State Department that Estrada be recognized by the American Fovernment as the real and active head

Dr. Castrillo will call at the State De artment within the next twenty-four hours and present the case in the most forceful manner at his command, stat ing all the facts in his possession and showing, according to his view, jus why and how an overwhelming majority of the Nicaraguan people desire Estrada for president in preference to anyone who may be selected by Zelaya or any other agency identified with the situa-

Dispatch From Diaz. "According to a dispatch I have received this morning from Diaz, secre-tary of state for Estrada," said Dr. Castrillo today, "the revolutionists will never consent to recognize Madriz, Irias, or any other man who has been thus named as a prospective candidate for the Presidency to succeed Zelaya. "The fact is," continued Dr. Castrillo, that each and all of these men are simply Zelaya agents. Central and South American republics generally know that, although the United States may not. Benefits Americans.

explains to me, for the benefit American people and the State

"That fact is indisputable, and can be proven by consultation with officials of the Costa Rican government. Therefor, how can it be possible for the American State Department, in view of the attitude it has thus far assumed, to officially recognize either of these men as resident of Nicaragua.

Zelaya Wants Friend.

"Further, it cannot be gainsaid by even the most ignorant of those who pretend to keep posted on Nicaraguan events that Zelaya will ever give his permission to inaugurate any man into the presidency who is not Zelaya's driend. That can be taken for granted. So no matter whether it is to be Madriz, Irias or some other man of that clan it can be taken for granted that the guiding hand behind him or them will be that of Zelaya. Zelaya will be there

"I have no fear concerning the future the battle now in progress in the cinity of Rama," concluded Dr. Casillo. "That is the smallest and least aportant feature of the situation. The wolutionary forces are excellently supped and situated and their victory assured."

DR. JOSE MADRIZ ASSUMES OFFICE

Madriz formally assumed the presiof Nicaragua today, following is election by congress yesterday. new president's threatened s foreshadowed in his declaration that Mexico is strongly supporting him, and had sent former Minister reel to Washington to intercede in is behalf, is the absorbing subject the capital today. Mexico has long been oppo delaya, and is known to have worked n unison with the United States for is overthrow. That Mexico should ow throw all support to Madriz is enstrued by Madriz supporters as roof that the new executive will be president in fact as well as in Rebel Leader Declares Overthrow in Nicaragua Is Sure.

BLUEFIELDS, via wireless to Colon, -General Estrada is today mak ng good his threat to carry the fight-ng to the government troops.

The revolutionists have attacked the government troops near Recreo, which s at the head of naviga on of ib break with former President Zelaya, Mico river. It is not believed that all the forces are engaged, for the dis euvering to surround the government troops. Estrada is being assisted by Generals Luis Mena, Fornos Diaz, Mauty, Pacheo, and Chamorro. The gunboat Blanca, being equipp with a Hotchkiss and several other rapid fire guns, has sailed up the Mico iver. The government troops are said to be intrenched for eight miles between tecreo and Mico Junction.

Dispatches received here quote Estra da as saying that the present engage broof that the new executive will be the president in fact as well as in name, and that he intends to give Nicaragua a new deal throughout. American residents, however, take no stock in such a prophecy. They say Mexico's support of Madriz, granted the latter's statements are true, is to prevent the complete success of the revolutionists. A victory for the revolutionists, followed by the elevation of Provisional President Estrada to the presidency, would almost surely foment another revolution in Guatemala and thereby pass the Mexican government.

Madriz knows, the Americans say, that unless he can make it appear that his administration is in the interest of peace, intervention will follow. To this end he is accused of giving out false reports regarding Mexican support in the hope of placating the United States. Madriz declares that the one aim of his administration will be to restore peace and bring about national unity. He says that complete immunity will be shown the revolutionists if they will immediately lay down their arms. He intimated that he would like to place Estrada in an important position in the new administration.

Dispatches received here quote Estrada as saying that the present engagement can have but one outcome, the complete overthrow of the enemy.
